Kerala, the south-western Indian state, has a rich and vibrant Islamic tradition which can be traced back to the period of Prophet Muhammed, peace be up on him. At present Muslims in this tiny state constitute one fourth of the total population and enjoy a peaceful sociocultural environment conducive to Islamic educational and cultural activities and propagation.

Inspired by such a dynamic tradition, Islamic scholars and educational institutions in the state have given topmost priority to promote and disseminate the pristine and classical creeds of Islam. Highlighting this legacy are over 1000 Darses (traditional Schools) and more than two hundred Islamic colleges functioning across the state.

But the syllabus and curriculum of these colleges require some modifications and upgrading to make them keep pace with time and get adapted to the modern education system. It was with this purpose in mind that the Coordination of Islamic Colleges (CIC) was formed in 2000 as a confederation of some Islamic institutes for advanced studies in the state. Registered as per the Society's Registration Act of Kerala government (regi.No:397/04), the CIC is an academic governing body functioning as a university with 33 colleges affiliated to it. The CIC has signed a Memorandum of Understanding for academic and cultural cooperation with the University of Al Azhar in Egypt and has obtained an equivalency certificate from the University of Cairo (Egypt), Aligarh Muslim University and Hamdard University both in India.

The CIC has given shape to a comprehensive Islamic course by combining both Islamic and material streams of education for boys and girls. We are here submitting a details of syllabus and course of study for girls, tailored to mould a skilled and religious women folk equipped with a cutting edge of knowledge both in Islamic and worldly streams, capable of building light gushing families and propagating Islam abiding by the Islamic guide lines. Those who successfully complete the course are conferred with the title Wafiyya derived from the Qruanic verse, "...whosoever keeps his covenant with Allah, on him He will bestow immense reward." (Fatah, 10).

Allah may bestow best of his rewards upon us and strengthen us with blessing in all our persuits.
